

CIK-FIA ASIA PACIFIC CHAMPIONSHIP - MACAO, 11th December 2011

EXCELLENT END OF SEASON FOR CRG-MAXTER: LENNOX IS THE RUNNER-UP IN KF1 IN MACAO

IN THE OTHER END OF SEASON INTERNATIONAL RACES, DAVIDE FORE' ON CRG-MAXTER IN KZ2 WINS IN BRAZIL AND JONATHAN THONON ON CRG-ROTAX STEPS ON THE PODIUM IN ORLANDO

Great end of season for CRG-Maxter, in the last international races of the year, thanks to a series of brilliant results achieved all around the world. The Italian constructor has confirmed the competitiveness of its chassis, top performing in every situation. From the last race of the year of the CIK-FIA F1 championship in Macao, with the excellent second place of Jordon Lennox-Lamb, to the thrilling races in Brazil - with Davide Forè winner in KZ2 - or to the USA races in Orlando - with the world champion Jonathan Thonon (on CRG-Rotax for this event): the terrific results achieved by CRG have rewarded and gratified the Team for their excellent work.

LENNOX ON THE PODIUM OF MACAO IN KF1.

CRG-Maxter drivers sealed the KF1 season of the Italian team: a season which culminated with the second step of the podium got by Jordon Lennox-Lamb in the Asian-Pacific championship - which took place in the toboggan of Macao - and the fifth place of Felice Tiene. Laura Tillett (seventh) confirmed her brilliant shape, while Eddy Tinini got a good tenth place.

The Asian round was the last international event in KF1 and it was the positive conclusion CRG deserved for its being always in the top positions of the rankings. The results reached their peak with the first and second place of Lennox and Tiene in Genk, in Belgium.

FORE' WINS IN BRASILE. In this end of season, CRG-Maxter managed to get a last win in KZ2 with David Forè, in Brazil on the beautiful international kart speedway Granja Viana in the Shifter race, in occasion of the classic 500 Miles.

After getting the pole position, in the rainy final Forè won easily. He preceded, with a wide gap, Andre Pedralli and Gabriel Dias (also on CRG-Maxter). Forè can definitely be happy with his third place, obtained playing a leading role, in the KZ1 World Cup of Genk, his fifth place in the European KZ1 of Wackersdorf, the tenth in the WSK Euro Series in KZ1.

THONON IN ORLANDO.

For the four time winner of the world championship Jonathan Thonon, the season ended with a podium in the USA in the PRI Red Bull Kart Fight event of Orlando. The CRG driver was excellent in the race/show on karts powered by Rotax, achieving the pole position and, in the final, recovering from the seventh to the third place on a track where overtaking was really hard.

Forè learnt it the hard way: he was running in Orlando too, but he crashed while fighting for the podium. Eventually, Thonon got a very good result which is a further award for his season in CRG, made more remarkable by his fourth world title in the KZ1 world cup of Genk and the fourth place in the KZ1 WSK Euro Series.
