

CRG RACING TEAM 2010

ALESSIO PROFETA IN THE CRG-MAXTER OFFICIAL TEAM

AFTER HIS FIRST RACE WITH THE COLOURS OF THE ITALIAN CONSTRUCTOR IN THE OPEN MASTERS OF POMPOSA, THE ENGAGEMENTS OF THE YOUNG ITALIAN DRIVER FROM SICILY CONTINUES IN THE KF3 WORLD CUP AND IN THE OTHER IMPORTANT END OF SEASON RACES.

Desenzano del Garda (Brescia, Italy), 6th September 2010. CRG, one of the most prizewinning firms in karting at international level, keeps on steadily and successfully in its training programme for new and talented drivers. After launching young and promising talents such as Max Verstappen (new WSK European Champion), or excellent drivers in the junior categories such as Antonio Fuoco and Mario Ziletti, a new talent has just joined the already rich 2010 CRG-Maxter Official Team: it is the 14-year-old Alessio Profeta, who has already represented Italy in the new Academy CIK-FIA Trophy.

Alessio Profeta (born in Palermo on 25th January 1996, in the picture above together with Giancarlo Tinini, Chairman of CRG spa), has defined with CRG an intense racing schedule. He has just started driving for the "all blacks" team in the Open Masters Italian Championship on the Circuit of Comacchio in Pomposa (Ferrara), and his next race in schedule is due this week-end with the KF3 World Cup in Braga (Portugal).

Alessio Profeta started driving karts when he was 9 in the Mini 60 category in the Sicilian Regional Championship in 2007. The following year, always in the Regional Championship, he was the runner-up, making then his debut in KF3 in the end of season Leotta Trophy (2nd place).

In 2009, Profeta took part in two races of the Regional Championship, winning both of them; he then won the Ayrton Senna Trophy, the Pagliuca Trophy in Sarno (Italy). He also took part in the Open Masters, getting good results.

OFFICIAL CRG PARTNERS

The young Sicilian driver managed to get good results at international level too, gaining the qualification for the European Championship of Sosnova (Czech Republic), for the KF3 European Championship of Zuera in Spain and for the KF3 World Cup of Sarno (Italy). He won the Leotta Trophy at the end of the season.

In 2010 Profeta took part again in the Open Masters with excellent results and several wins in the heats; he achieved wins in the Regional Championships of Apulia and Campania; he gained the qualification for the European selection of Wackersdorf (Germany) and took part in the European final of Genk (Belgium). He raced in the Academy Trophy of Wackersdorf and Alcaniz (Spain), and will take part in the third and last event of the trophy in Val D'Argenton (France) on 3rd October.

In his end of season schedule there are as well the Trofeo delle Industrie (7th November), the Nations Cup of the WSK (28th November) and, finally, the Leotta Trophy (on the Sicilian tracks of Triscina, Favara and Vittoria)

In 2011 he should shift to KF2, always for the colours of CRG Official Team.

Press Office
CRG SpA
www.kartcrg.com