TRICKY WSK SUPER MASTER SERIES IN ADRIA DUE TO THE RAIN

The opener of the WSK Super Master Series in Adria has been difficult due to the bad weather. CRG drivers among the protagonists in all categories. Excellent Puhakka in KZ2, Hauger and Bradshaw in OK, Henrion in OK-Junior.

Weather conditions in Adria have been very tough at the opener of the WSK Super Master Series. After the wet qualifying on Friday, weather got even worse on Saturday and the final 6 heats of Mini, KZ2 and OK Junior had to be stopped by the red flag. The final heats have been postponed to Sunday February 5th, hoping for better conditions.

A SUPER SIMO PUHAKKA IN KZ2!

KZ2 qualifying have highlighted the quality of the strong CRG driver from Finland Simo Puhakka, who posted the quickest time in 1:02.366s on CRG-Tm. The other CRG drivers have also put in strong performances, as last Sunday's winner at the WSK Champions Cup, Stan Pex, who was third. Jorrit Pex was seventh, and World Champion Paolo De Conto followed him in eighth place, while Flavio Camponeschi was tenth. Taymour Kermanshahchi was 17th and Alessandro Giardelli 38th.

CRG drivers Puhakka, the two brothers Pex Stan and Jorrit and De Conto were among the front runners in the first heats held on Saturday, while Camponeschi had to stop due to an incident.

HAUGER AND BRADSHOW SHINING IN OK

The British winner of the CIK-FIA Academy 2016 Callum Bradshaw has come to the fore in OK, despite being at his debut this year on CRG-Parilla. Bradshaw was 12th in a qualifying session spoiled by rain, Dennis Hauger was 17th and Matteo Nannini 25th. They were followed by the other two CRG drivers that are at their debut of the season Kilian Meyer and Davide Lombardo. Dennis Hauger completed a great comeback in the heats – all the scheduled heats have been run in this category, and he brilliantly secured a provisional P5. Callum Bradshaw took a great P9, while Kilian Meyer a very good P22 obtained in critical weather conditions. Davide Lombardo is 25th (with a fourth place as best result of the heats), while Matteo Nannini suffered several DNFs due to incidents.

GILLIAN HENRION AMONG THE QUICKEST OF OK-JUNIOR

OK-Junior drivers have also put in a series of strong performances. Above all, the French Gillian Henrion who was second in the recent Champions Cup, has been shining since qualifying as he posted the fastest lap of his group, which was worth the second absolute time. Henrion run excellent heats too, taking one victory and two second places. The Spanish driver Ayrton Fontecha, at his debut with CRG, also had a good day, as the Brazilian Gabriel Bortoleto, while the French Evann Mallet, the Spanish Jose Gomez and the Malaysian Nik Zamir Zakwan struggled a bit in the rain. Some further heats are scheduled for OK-Junior on Sunday morning, as for 60 Mini and classifications are therefore still to be defined.
