PREVIEW: CRG PRESENTS THE RENTAL KART WORLD CONTEST

The event will take place at the circuit of Lignano Sabbiadoro and will see CRG Centurion karts on track with the best teams and drivers enthusiast of rental karting challenging each other. The drivers partaking in the event will be selected all around the world on the tracks employing CRG karts.

CRG is pleased to introduce a new and exciting karting initiative: the Rental Kart World Contest. This event is an International Final reserved to drivers and rental karting enthusiasts that will have the chance to challenge each other in Lignano Sabbiadoro next 14 – 15 October 2017. Qualifying for this event will take place on the rental tracks, race organizers and championships adopting CRG karts all around the world.

The event will award drivers and teams titles. The teams title will be awarded at the end of a 8 Hours long Endurance race open to 34 lineups (made by 3 to 6 drivers), while the drivers title will be decided at the end of a Sprint race open to 68 drivers (2 for each of the 34 teams qualified).

CRG will be directly involved in the organization of the event through the provision of Centurion karts (powered by 4 stroke engines), technical assistance and logistics, such as box and paddock club set up, and other special initiatives that will make the event very appealing. CRG racing team works drivers will also be involved and several media and communication initiatives will be devised to provide the event and partaking drivers with the due visibility.
