CRG CENTURION KARTS PROTAGONIST OF ENDURANCE KARTING

The first event of the Karting Endurance by CRG has taken place in Castelletto di Branduzzo with the support of the Italian food company Beretta. Two very exciting and intense races have given the victory to the WLF lineup made by Panzeri, Bonanomi, Corti, Bini, Terzoli and Valsecchi. A great organizational success.

The first event of the Endurance Karting by CRG season has gone into the archives recording a great success from a technical and organizational viewpoint. The christening of the CRG Centurion range and the technical management of the Racing Team of the Italian outfit took place at the circuit 7 Laghi of Castelletto di Branduzzo, where 29 teams and more than 170 drivers have been protagonist of an event featuring two 2-hours long races with the support of the Italian food company Beretta.

EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE AND RELIABILITY FOR CRG CENTURION KARTS

All the drivers have had very positive feelings at the wheel of the Kart Centurion, that will be pushed by Honda 390cc engines in these events. In particular, performance and reliability have been excellent and have allowed two very exciting and intense races. The WLF lineup made by Panzeri, Bonanomi, Corti, Bini, Terzoli and Valsecchi secured 193 points in the two races, winning the event. The second place went to the Io Lavoro team that totaled 140 points, while the Mixed Meats team rounded off the podium scoring 125 points. Both races had a photo-finish end, which is an indication of the balance of performance of the karts that have been really appreciated for these kind of races.

A GREAT SUCCESS

This event has been a huge organizational success for CRG staff that provided the teams with several excellent services, starting from the big Hospitality village and driver pits equipped with screens to follow the race, technical clothing, track service and a maxi catering area where everyone could enjoy Beretta products and music.

The Endurance Karting season is very important for CRG, as it enhances the commercial initiatives of the Centurion range through the acquisition of important technical experience and visibility for one of the highest quality products on the market.

Among the main events of the season, the technical provisioning of the Endurance Kart Cup Series and the Rental World Contest that will take place in Lignano Sabbiadoro next October.
