CRG DOMINATING DKM IN KERPEN. VICTORIES TO STAN PEX, HAUGER AND HAVERKORT

Stan Pex took a double win in the second round of DKM in Kerpen (Germany) and became the new KZ2 classification leader, Dennis Hauger won OK and Kas Haverkort OK-Junior.

CRG put in another strong performance at the second round of the DKM held in Kerpen after the opener of Ampfing. Stan Pex claimed a stunning double win in KZ, Dennis Hauger took his maiden win in OK and CRG Keijzer Racing's Kas Haverkort secured a good victory in OK-Junior, category that is now led by CRG TB Racing Team's Niels Troger.

CRG AND STAN PEX LEADING THE KZ2 CHAMPIONSHIP

Stan Pex run a perfect weekend on CRG-Tm in Kerpen. He won both KZ2 Finals and this result, added to the victory of Ampfing's Race-2 placed the Dutch driver of CRG on top of the championship standings. Things did not go well this time for Flavio Camponeschi, who was on track with CRG Deutschland. The winner Ampfing's Race-1 endured in fact a technical problem slowing him down in the first final before forcing him to the retirement from Race-2.

A total of 6 CRG drivers closed the first KZ2 Final in the top 9. Behind the winner Stan Pex, Fabian Federer was in fact third, Jorrit Pex fourth, Camponeschi fifth, Lorenzo Van Riet of CRG Keijzer seventh and Alessandro Giardelli ninth.

OFFICIAL CRG PARTNERS

Stan Pex's and CRG's dominant run continued in Race-2, as Jorrit Pex closed his effort in P3, Fabian Federer in sixth place and Benjamin Tornqvist in eighth. Alessandro Giardelli also run a strong race ending 14th, leading Max Tubben who completed a good recovery after the retirement from Race-1.

The Championship classification is dominated by CRG drivers. KZ2 classification after two rounds: 1. Stan Pex (CRG-Tm-Vega) points 102; 2. Jorrit Pex (CRG-Tm-Vega) 89; 3. Moritz Horn on CRG-Tm run by CRG TB Racing Team was the quickest of the CRG lot in KZ2 Cup, as he closed both Finals on the podium, taking a great second place in Race-1 and a third in Race-2. His team mate Dennis Kramp also run a solid weekend coming fourth in Race-2. Jeroen Bos was fifth in Race-1 and sixth in Race-2 instead. Horn is currently fourth in the classification, while Bos is fifth.

DENNIS HAUGER STRONG PROTAGONIST ALSO OF OK

OK provided a further confirmation of the speed of another great protagonist, Dennis Hauger, who claimed his maiden win in the category in the debut year, after winning last year the OK-Junior DKM. Hauger has been particularly competitive in both Finals held in Kerpen. In Race-1 he fought for the victory but could not find a way past his main rival David Schumacher in the sprint to the line. The CRG driver soon counter-charged winning Final-2, despite a slow start due to a misunderstanding at the getaway when the traffic light seemed to fail. Hauger closed lap one in fifth place, but then recovered all the way to take a fair victory.

Among the main protagonists of OK, Glenn Van Berlo of CRG Keijzer was fourth in Race-1, while CRG TB Racing Team's Tim Troger was fourth in Race-2. Wodan Erik Munding has also been very competitive on the new Kali-Kart, taking two fifth places. Michael Rosina was also among the quickest and ended Race-1 in eighth place.
