PROSPERI TAKES THE WIN IN KZ2 ON CRG-TM AT THE SPANISH CHAMPIONSHIP IN ALCANIZ

Enrico Prosperi claimed the victory in the first final of the fourth round of the Spanish Championship in Alcaniz, and ended Race-2 in second place, earning the third place of the classification in the process.

Enrico Prosperi secured a great victory in KZ2 on CRG-Tm in the fourth round of the Spanish Championship that took place in Alcaniz. The Spanish driver of CRG competing for Team M2 Racing Karts put in a great weekend on the Motorland Circuit and is now standing third in the Championship.

In Race-1 Prosperi managed to install himself into the lead early on and kept it all the way to the flag, building a good margin on the nearest rival. Prosperi put in another great run in the second Final, keeping the lead until halfway through and fighting for the victory all the way to the flag, when he eventually was second, right in the slipstream of the leader.

Among the other main protagonists of Alcaniz, Gerard Cebrian Ariza has been shining in KZ2 on CRG-Tm run by RC2 Junior Team, as he was fourth in Race-1 – posting also the fastest lap of the race, while his team mate Yohan Azedo Sousa followed him. Gerard Cebrian Ariza was then fifth in Race-2, while Yohan Azedo Sousa was eighth in the second final.
