COUNTDOWN STARTED FOR THE ENDURANCE KART WORLD CONTEST BY CRG

Less than one month is left before the International Kart Endurance event by CRG that will take place in Pomposa (Italy) next October 6th. The official Entry List is closing shortly and the final organizational details are being defined.

The 2nd edition of the Rental Kart World Contest is going to be an event not to be missed by all the Kart Endurance fans. The International Final to be run on Saturday October 6th on the karting circuit in Pomposa is reserved to teams selected all around the world in events run on CRG Karts.

It will be a 10 Hours Endurance race employing brand new CRG Centurion Karts managed by the racing department of the Italian factory. Among the qualifying events, the 24 Hours Karting of Italy held in Adria (Italy) qualified the Danish team ATB and some other teams entered as wild cards, and the Endurance Kart Cup series managed by CNC Events was another qualifier.

Several teams will come to Pomposa from all over the World. Teams from China, Mexico, Peru, Colombia, Germany, France, Romania have already confirmed their presence alongside several other Countries that run the qualifying events.

The official entry list will be disclosed in the coming days as the final 10 places available are still to be defined. Alongside teams winning CRG events, teams that took part in official events using CRG Karts will be entitled to enter as wild cards.

This is going to be a karting Endurance celebration and a high level International event with the presence of the best teams coming from all over the world. The event will include 1 hour of free practice, a Superpole session and the Endurance 10 hours race.

Regulations are very simple and only impose a minimum of 8 Pit Stops with driver change. A Silver category has been set up for amateurs that will require a minimum of 12 driver changes.
