DE CONTO, HILTBRAND AND BRADSHAW IN CRG'S SUPER TEAM IN LAS VEGAS

The deadline is getting closer (October 29th) for registering to the race, and the CRG Nordam's management is completing the drivers line up in all the classes for the most spectacular event of International Karting: the XXII Supernats from November 14th to 18th.

The 22nd edition of the SuperNationals in Las Vegas, the most glamour and spectacular karting event organized by SKUSA (USA's Karting Federation), will take place from the 14th to the 18th of November on the circuit built in front of the Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino. It is a prestigious location, that summons over 300 drivers coming from all over the world every year.

The track is amazing both for the technique and for the unique frame of spectators in the heart of Las Vegas' resorts and casinos. CRG Nordam with its Racing Team is one of the most important teams and it will have one of the most competitive drivers line up, including the winner of the last 2 editions Paolo De Conto in the KZ class, besides Pedro Hiltbrand (racing in the Senior and Pro-Shifter categories) and Callum Bradshaw (Senior).

CRG Nordam arranged a customized service for the drivers who wish to take part to the race (in every category) and in the next weeks the line up will be completed with the last places available, for a total of over 30 drivers present in all the classes.

The assistance that CRG will provide for the event is "full service", including chassis, engines, technical support and all the linked services, but also customized programs for the drivers' specific needs, such as the sole tent place under the CRG staff supervision or just the rental of technical equipment (chassis and engines).

The entries close on October 29th, but many categories are already almost sold out, so these are the last days to plan a participation in this spectacular event. For further information on CRG Nordam's services and programs, please write an email to racings@kartcrg-nordam.com
