TONY TESORO JOINS CRG NORDAM

The technician has taken on the role of "Race Team and Sales management"

CRG Nordam, the company that handles the American market for the CRG brand, has announced the new entry of Tony Tesoro to the companies structure starting in December.

As Track technician and an experienced manager, Tony has been working with CRG for 3 years, following many commercial activities and driver's, including the Tyler Maxson who raced this year in Europe and the USA. This agreement shows the importance of the American market for CRG.

CRG Nordam's strategic activities and large investments shows the effort which is being made in order to have an increasingly qualified and efficient presence in this market. Tony Tesoro will take on the role of Team Manager of the CRG Nordam Racing Team and will be busy on track at all of the main SKUSA events, providing technical support all clients and satellite teams.
